Disclosure of Contractual Relations and Release

In order to avoid any potential issues involving interference with contractual relationships, it is the obligation of the undersigned agent Applicant on behalf of applicant, its subsidiaries and affiliates to disclose any and all contracts between Applicant or any of its affiliates and subsidiaries and any motor carrier of household goods or van lines. By signing below, the authorized officer of the Applicant acknowledges the obligation to fully and completely disclose such relationships and contracts and confirms that all contracts have either been attached to the application or are otherwise fully disclosed. In the event that any such contracts contain a non-disclosure or confidentiality provision, the Applicant shall have its attorney provide a written opinion that there are no restrictions or prohibitions applicable to the applicant or its affiliates and subsidiaries that would interfere with the discussions of, negotiations for, or appointment of the Applicant as an agent for Wheaton Van Lines, Inc. ("Company") or one of its wholly owned subsidiaries. It is understood that Company reserves the right to have Applicant's attorney provide an opinion pertaining to the ability of the Applicant to become an agent. The Applicant further represents and warrants that there are no prohibitions preventing the Applicant from becoming an agent of Wheaton or Bekins or that any prohibitions have been disclosed in order to determine the time at which the Applicant would be free from any restrictions. The Applicant further agrees to indemnify and hold Company harmless from any and all claims, demands, lawsuits, damages of any kind, judgments, awards, decrees, and expenses including court costs and attorney fees incurred by Company and arising out of or from any party asserting any interference with the contract between the Applicant and such third party. The Applicant further acknowledges and agrees that its representations and warranties herein constitutes a request by the Applicant for Company to process the application for appointment of the agency with Company.

On behalf of the Applicant and for the purpose of the investigation of the management and business affairs of the Applicant or to confirm any fact disclosed by Applicant, the undersigned hereby authorizes Company to request any and all information from any third party with whom Applicant has done business, and which has either been disclosed by Applicant as a reference of any type or who might otherwise have relevant information pertaining to the Applicant. Applicant further releases Company from any liability or claims arising from either the request for or the receipt of any such information. Furthermore, Applicant releases each and every third party disclosing any information from any liability arising from such disclosure. On behalf of the Applicant, the undersigned releases and waives any confidentiality of such information and any privilege which might apply to such information and specifically authorizes any third party to release such information to Company and for Company to obtain such information. Applicant hereby waives any and all claims, damages, or injuries against Company and any such third party for the release of, or the receipt and use of such information arising from such disclosure. The undersigned further certifies that all of the information provided by Applicant is true and correct to the best of the knowledge of the undersigned after his or her investigation into the books, records, and files of the Applicant and that the undersigned is fully authorized to release the information, to execute this Release, and to make the representations and warranties contained herein on behalf of the Applicant.
